

Overview and Target Audience

This conference is intended to present the most current research and application for clinical nutrition practice areas for the care of infants, children and adults.

Educational Objectives

Upon completion of this conference, participants should be able to:

- Improve knowledge of the Human Microbiome and increase understanding for its role in different populations.
- Compare nutrition content and environmental sustainability of foods produced by the different food production processes. Understand role of sustainability in preparing for the future.
- Identify local resources to optimize food security in high risk populations, with emphasis in oncology.

Continuing Education Credit

Upon completion of the evaluation, a certificate of attendance will be provided.

Children's Hospital Colorado Department of Clinical Nutrition is a CPE Accredited Provider from the Commission on Dietetic Registration.

This conference will provide 6.5 Continuing Professional Education Units (CPE) for RDN's and DTR's.

Location and Parking

This conference will be held on the Anschutz Medical Campus at Children's Hospital Colorado, 13123 East 16th Avenue, Aurora, Colorado. Please enter the hospital at the main entrance and take the elevators to the Conference and Education Center on the second floor.

Children's Hospital Colorado Dietetic Internship Initiative

The Anschutz Medical Campus is the professional home to many registered dietitians, supporting the medical teams caring for children and adults. In 2010, an informal group of nutrition professionals representing Children's Hospital Colorado, University of Colorado School of Medicine Section of Nutrition, and the community came together to begin the process of designing a comprehensive dietetic internship program option on the Anschutz Medical Campus. It is because of the hard work of these initial representatives and now over 60 nutrition professionals on the campus whose dedication has allowed for the formation of the Children's Hospital Colorado Dietetic Internship Program - affiliated with University of Colorado School of Medicine and University of Colorado Hospital.

The 4th class of Dietetic Interns is currently training at Children's Colorado, University of Colorado Hospital, and other facilities on the Anschutz Medical Campus. For more information about Children's Colorado Dietetic Internship program, please contact Amy Schwartz, Internship Coordinator at amy.schwartz@childrenscolorado.org. For more information on accreditation and dietetic internships, visit eatright.org/acend.
